Lenawee C2C Executive Committee

October 9, 2017, 10:00 a.m. - Noon

LISD Education Service Center, 4107 N. Adrian Hwy., Adrian, MI

Attendance: Stan Masters, John Haight, Mark Haag, Michael Masters, Patricia Gray, Shannon Elliott, and Nate Hamblin (via phone)

WELCOME: 10:00 a.m.

Strive Network -

- Clarified the Strive Network's role as a consulting / resourcing third party.
- News of the Ballmer Group's $90 million investment in Strive, $60 million available to the local partnerships at a sustaining level of achievement.
- Lenawee C2C Partnership is classified as emerging.

Director Report - see attached

- Discussion centered around the need for a greater clarity in internal & external communication.
 - Use less school language - C2C is not about education reform/attainment, but whole child wellness.
 - Continue to use storytelling on successes
- Continued need to recruit "boots on the ground" implementers so that as we engage the youth / community voice, we are ready to act.

Kindergarten Readiness Report Preview -

- Reviewed the Readiness Data and the instruments being used to gather.
 - Recommendation:
 - Communicate countywide readiness rose from 50% to 51%.
 - Communicate not all the data was received.
 - Disaggregate the data to demonstrate the importance of preschool involvement to data readiness.
- Future conversations needed to explain the difference between entering kindergarten "ready to learn" and "kindergarten readiness".

Round Table -

- Shannon Elliott - report from School & Justice Partnership Summit. Discussion re: the purpose and desire to have Handle with Care implemented in Lenawee County.
- Stan Masters - Climate/Structure of Cradle to Career.
 - Lenawee C2C Partnership is the umbrella organization to support the work being done by the Student Success Networks and partners
- Video Conferencing Option - Will make it available for Executive Team bi-monthly meetings once available.

The meeting adjourned at Noon.
