MICHIGAN
WORKS!

Are you a veteran looking for a career ?

Today's veterans have in-demand skills that employers are seeking such as leadership, punctuality, time management, team focus, and being mission-oriented, to name a few.

Let's Start

1. Get in:

Visit your local Michigan Works! One-Stop Service Center to take advantage of vocational counseling, education and training programs, and job-seeking assistance. Identify yourself as having served in the military to receive Priority of Service and determine whether you are eligible for intensive employment services. You can find more information at michiganworks.org or call 800-285-WORKS (9675).

2. Get Prepared:

Put your best foot forward! Meet with workforce development professionals to update your resume, sharpen your interview skills and more. Pure Michigan Talent Connect serves as a launch pad for new jobs, careers, and talent. Job seekers can search for jobs and resources all in one place at: mitalent.org.

3. Get out There:

Michigan employers are looking to hire veterans. Take your new skills and confidence with you to compete in the global economy.

Services Available

Job Seeking

Looking for a new opportunity can be exciting, scary, and nerve-racking. No matter what career stage you're in, be sure to check out the nearest Michigan Works! location. Michigan Works! provides a wide range of programs and services for job seekers. From job clubs and resume writing workshops to career fairs and training resources, you will get the help you need at the location closest to you.

Career Exploration

Choosing a career is a challenging task. Michigan Works! staff can help you determine the "hot jobs" in your area as well as assist you in exploring the right career path based upon your education, experience, personality, and goals by using the tools listed:

- Pathfinder is an online tool for finding educational paths, careers, and outcomes for Michigan residents. Open the door to new possibilities today! Check out the free career planning tool at: pathfinder.mitalent.org
- My Next Move for Veterans helps you find a civilian career similar to your military job at: mynextmove.org
- Review Michigan Hot 50 careers at: milmi.org

Education & Training

Based on eligibility, your local Michigan Works! One-Stop Service Center may be able to help you find funding for On-the-Job Training (OJT), apprenticeships, or traditional college programs. Employers supervise and train employees in an OJT program, helping workers to update their skills for in-demand occupations. Many occupations require certifications or degrees.

Registered Apprenticeship

Growing Registered Apprenticeships is a priority for Michigan. Today's apprenticeships combine classroom studies with extensive OJT training under the supervision of journey-level craftsman or a trade professional. For additional information, ask to speak with a Michigan Works! Apprenticeship Success Coordinator or visit michigan.gov/wda.

Priority of Service

Priority of Service means veterans, and eligible spouses, who meet the eligibility requirements for a federally-funded program or service, are to receive access to programs or services either earlier in time or instead of persons who are not eligible for Priority of Service. To learn more visit dol.gov/vets.

Intensive Employment Services for Eligible Veterans

Veteran Career Advisors provide intensive and individualized employment services to eligible veterans and spouses assisting them with overcoming significant barriers to employment. These services include, but are not limited to, guiding the program participant through the process of:

- Increasing resume marketability
- Improve interview skills
- Effectively use social networks
- Improve job search skills through networking
- Access veteran-friendly employers
- Access DD214 and Military Joint Services Transcripts
- Assist with translating military experience/skills to industry equivalents
- Connect with local resources

Intensive Individualized Employment Services For Eligible Veterans and Spouses

Located within Michigan Works! One-Stop Service Centers, Veterans Career Advisors (VCA) provide intensive and individualized employment services to eligible veterans and spouses with significant barriers to employment. The Veterans Career Advisors (VCA) provides intensive one-on-one services designed to assist eligible veterans and spouses in reducing or eliminating barriers to employment. These services include, but are not limited to, resume development, interviewing skills, networking and direct referral to other service providers.

- ☐ Are you an eligible veteran or spouse with a significant barrier to employment?
- ☐ Are you interested, but unsure what a significant barrier to employment is?

Mission:

To deliver intensive employment services to a targeted veteran population as an integrated partner with the Michigan Works! Agency, in accordance with the intent of the Jobs for Veterans State Grant program.

Please visit your local Michigan Works!

One-Stop Service Center for more information. To find a service center near you, visit michiganworks.org or call (800) 285-9675 (WORKS).
